

LaidOffCamp Chicago

is an event where individuals in a career transition who are looking to gain perspective, discover new passions, or reinvent their careers can unite.

When?

Wednesday, June 10th 2009, 12-5pm

Followed by LaidOffLounge @ McCormick & Schmick's, 5-8pm*

Where?

LOYOLA UNIVERSITY CHICAGO

Water Tower Campus 25 E. Pearson
Kasbeer Hall, 15th Floor*

Who's invited?

The event is directed towards entry and mid-level professionals in industries such as the Financial Services, Professional and Business Services, Information Technology, Retail Trade, Creative Arts, Education, Health Services and Non-profits. You do NOT have to be unemployed to attend!

What's the point?

To connect, empower, and educate community members who are experiencing significant challenges in this new economic climate.

How does this work?

Panels, workshops, demonstrations, and discussions will be based on your suggestions. Examples include:

- Building your personal brand
- Legal and accounting needs of new businesses
- Budgeting for the downturn
- Becoming a freelance independent worker
- The art of interviewing
- Presentation skills

*Please visit:
laidoffcamp.com
for more information, to suggest a topic,
or to sign up for the event